

AUDIENCE: Family members, caregivers, direct support staff, supervisors, and behavior clinicians

Autism and Fragile X Syndrome: Using Cutting Edge Research to Guide Excellent Clinical Care

This presentation will address how new and innovative findings from the fields of autism spectrum disorder and fragile X syndrome research can help shape the best care available for individuals impacted by these disorders.

March 18, 2010

9:00 a.m. – 11:00 a.m.

IVY TECH Community College – SOUTH BEND*
220 Dean Johnson Blvd South Bend, IN 46601
Room #1121

Presenter

Craig A. Erickson, M.D.

Assistant Professor of Psychiatry
Chief, Fragile X Syndrome Clinic
Indiana University School of Medicine
Riley Hospital Child & Adolescent Psychiatry Clinic

Dr. Erickson is a graduate of the University of Cincinnati College of Medicine and the Indiana University School of Medicine Adult and Child Psychiatry Residency programs. His areas of clinical and research interest include autism and related disorders, fragile X syndrome, genetic disorders with behavioral manifestations, and intellectual disability in general.

Registration Required

<https://ddrsprovider.fssa.in.gov/Events/Public/Calendar.aspx>

1-866-429-5290

Free of charge presentation hosted by Outreach Services of Indiana

*Directions to IVY TECH South Bend can be found at <http://ivytech.edu/about/campuses/north-central.html>
Click on "Directions to this location" for South Bend Campus

