

NOTRE DAME/MICHIGANA community exchange

The Science Café: Solving the Autism Puzzle

Autism is a complex neurodevelopmental disorder that affects 1 in 110 children, and its prevalence is growing.

Dr. Joshua Diehl is an expert on neurodevelopmental disorders. He will discuss the latest autism research, including his own work on language and communication.

Please join us for learning, lively conversation, & light refreshments.

When:

6:00–7:30 pm
January 27, 2010

Location:

Notre Dame Downtown
Community Relations
217 S. Michigan St.
South Bend, IN 46617

Featuring:

Dr. Joshua J. Diehl
Assistant Professor of Psychology
University of Notre Dame

UNIVERSITY OF NOTRE DAME

Office of Public Affairs and Communication
Community Relations